Blue Grey Combine Showcases Top High School Football Talent in Cardinal Stadium at the Kentucky Exposition Center

LOUISVILLE, KY (April 26, 2013) –More than 200 high school players will showcase their football ability in the Kentucky Bluegrass Combine Sunday, May 5 in Cardinal Stadium at the Kentucky Exposition Center. The combine runs from 11 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. and is free and open to the public. Parking at the Kentucky Exposition Center is $8 per vehicle.

High school players will compete for the attention of college coaches and scouts in hopes of earning a college scholarship. The best players from the Kentucky Bluegrass Combine, alongside players from other combines will be selected to compete in the Blue-Grey National Super Combine at the Professional Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. From there, players can earn a spot in the Blue-Grey National All-Star Classic in January, which will be nationally televised on Fox Sports. The combine tests players for speed, strength, agility as well as evaluates football skills.
